

The Inclusive Co-op Series: Join the Journey

How do we move from the legal obligations of the Human Rights Code to the practical skills that keep communities safe and connected?

Session 1 (In Person)

Date: March 21, 2026

Time: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Facilitator: Celia Chandler, CHF-T & Michael Gibson, Miller Thomson

From Conflict to Consistency

Build confidence in Human Rights obligations, including the Duty to Inquire and Duty to Accommodate, with practical guidance from legal experts.

This session expands on the introduction presented at the November GM.

Session 2 (Online)

Date: April 11, 2026

Time: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Facilitator: Drewe Rowbotham, Housing Coordinator, Autism Edmonton

The Neuro-Affirming Co-op

Learn how to reduce sensory barriers and make expectations clear and accessible for neurodivergent members.

Session 3 (Online)

Trauma-Informed Belonging

Develop practical repair tools and regulation strategies to help boards manage high-stakes conflict safely and constructively.

Series Pass

Get the Inclusive Co-op Series Pass for $750, covering your entire board, and save $150 compared to individual session registration.

Important Note on Accessibility

To ensure the safety and comfort of all participants, Sessions 2 and 3 are Online Only via Zoom. This allows members to control their sensory environment, manage lighting and noise, and use self-regulation tools privately while participating.
